

Internet Resources and Links

These are just few of the many resources available online for information about native plants and pollinators.

<https://www.fws.gov/pollinators/PollinatorPages/Outreach.html>

<https://www.fws.gov/pollinators/Index.html>

posters and info

<https://xerces.org/bumblebees/about>

<https://xerces.org/our-work>

information & resources about pollinators

<https://www.pollinator.org/about>

a large amount of information and resources

<https://www.morningagclips.com/where-do-bees-go-in-winter/>

lifecycle

<https://www.fws.gov/pollinators/PollinatorPages/Outreach.html>

<https://www.fws.gov/pollinators/Index.html>

posters and info

<https://xerces.org/bumblebees/about>

<https://xerces.org/our-work>

information & resources about pollinators

<https://www.pollinator.org/about>

a large amount of information and resources

<https://www.morningagclips.com/where-do-bees-go-in-winter/>

lifecycle and overwintering information

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/List\_of\_butterflies\_of\_Oklahoma

extensive list of OK's butterflies with links to info on individual species

<http://www.tulsaaudubon.org/nativegardening#host-plants> outstanding!!

<https://kerrcenter.com/publication/native-plants-for-pollinators/>

pdf for downloading